Lord, Lord, Lord — By Ryan Flanigan
Lord, Lord, Lord, please restore our trust
We've lost our way, Lord, we've strayed from love
We've broken vows, we've wasted breath
We've stolen life, we've tasted death

Lamb of God, take away our sin
Have mercy, have mercy
Jesus Christ, holy sacrifice
Have mercy, have mercy on us

We need you now to forgive our sin
Replace our stone hearts with flesh again
Undo the curse, and heal our faith
Unleash your power, Lord, come and save

Welcome

Brokenness Aside — All Sons & Daughters
Will your grace run out, If I let you down
'Cause all I know, Is how to run

'Cause I am a sinner, If it's not one thing it's another Caught up in words, Tangled in lies
But you are the Savior, And you take brokenness aside
And make it beautiful, Beautiful

Will you call me child, When I tell you lies
'Cause all I know, Is how to cry

You make it beautiful, You make it beautiful

His Mercy is More — Matt Boswell and Matt Papa
What love could remember no wrongs we have done
Omniscient, all knowing, he counts not their sum
Thrown into a sea without bottom or shore
Our sins they are many, his mercy is more

Praise the Lord, His mercy is more Stronger than darkness, new every morn
Our sins they are many, his mercy is more

What patience would wait as we constantly roam
What father, so tender, is calling us home
He welcomes the weakest, the vilest, the poor
Our sins they are many, his mercy is more

What riches of kindness he lavished on us
His blood was the payment, his life was the cost
We stood 'neath a debt we could never afford
Our sins they are many, his mercy is more

The largest book in the Bible is primarily a book of poems set to music to sing God praises. This is all part of God's design to surround His presence with singing. Gratitude to God expresses dependence upon God and is an antidote for cynicism, criticism, and bitterness.

Message

¹⁷ my soul is bereft of peace;
    I have forgotten what happiness is;
¹⁸ so I say, "My endurance has perished;
    so has my hope from the Lord."

¹⁹ Remember my affliction and my wanderings,
    the wormwood and the gall!
²⁰ My soul continually remembers it and is bowed down within me.
²¹ But this I call to mind,
    and therefore I have hope:

²² The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases;
    his mercies never come to an end;
²³ they are new every morning;
    great is your faithfulness.
²⁴ "The Lord is my portion," says my soul,
    "therefore I will hope in him."

Heal Me, O Lord — Arr. by George Damoff
Heal me, O Lord, that I might truly be healed
Save me, that I might truly be saved
For You are the only One who can change my ways
Heal me, O Lord, for You are my praise

Lead me, O Lord, that I might follow your ways
Guide me, that I might truly be safe
For You are my only Hope in the darkest of days
Lead me, O Lord, for You are my praise

Hide me, O Lord, that I might rest in Your grace
Let all your foes be put to shame
For You are my sure defense; I will not be dismayed
Hide me, O Lord, for You are my praise

Lead me, O Lord . . . Heal me, O Lord, for You are my praise

BENEDICTION

It has been the practice of the church for thousands of years to have portions of the Bible read during worship services. We do this because we are people who need to be shaped by all of God's word

---

The benediction, different from good wishes or even a prayer, is a pronouncement of God's blessing. God sends us out in peace, giving us his presence as we go to be blessing-bearers to the world.
